Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen

Q105:: What are we especially taught by the words “before me” in the First Commandment?

A105: The words “before me” or “before my face” in the First Commandment, teach us, that God, who sees all things, takes special notice of, and is much displeased with the sin of having any other God; so that it may be an argument to dissuade us from it, and to emphasize it as a most serious provocation; as also to persuade us to do as in His sight, whatever we do in His service.
