The Lord is great in Zion;

he is exalted over all the peoples.

Confession of Faith - Westminster Larger Catechism

Q. 193: For what do we pray in the fourth petition?

A. 193: In the fourth petition (which is, “Give us this day our daily bread”) acknowledging that in Adam, and by our own sin, we have forfeited our right to all the outward blessings of this life, and deserve to be wholly deprived of them by God and to have them cursed to us in the use of them; and that these outward blessings alone are unable to sustain us, nor can we merit them, or by our own work obtain them, but we are prone to desire, get, and use them unlawfully; we pray for ourselves and others, that both they and we, waiting on the providence of God from day to day in the use of lawful means may, of his free gift, and as to his fatherly wisdom shall seem best, enjoy a sufficient portion of them and have the same continued and blessed to us in our holy and comfortable use of them, and contentment in them; and be kept from all things that are contrary to our material support and comfort.

Call to Confession

Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. On account of these the wrath of God is coming. In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices. Colossians 3:5-9

Silent Confession of Sin

Assurance of Pardon

But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ— by grace you have been saved— and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. Ephesians 2:4-7

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen*
